2ND - INFORMATION SESSION INDIGENOUS BACHELOR SOCIAL WORK @ RCCC MAIN CAMPUS APRIL 21, 2017 @ 1:00 PM

As a member of the First Nations Adult and Higher Education Consortium (FNAHEC), Red Crow Community College plans to deliver an Indigenous Bachelor of Social Work degree commencing on September 2017. It is a specialty degree that applies Indigenous Knowledge and Pedagogies to Social Work practice. Graduates of this program qualify for employment in all areas of Social Work.

Mode of Delivery

The RCCC IBSW program is a full-time program delivered through the learning circle model. Courses will be delivered Fridays and Saturdays. This mode of delivery will allow both employed and full-time funded students to complete the program.

Program Entry Criteria

Students applying to the program must possess an accredited diploma in Social Work. A diploma in Indigenous Social Work is preferred, after degree and two year Arts and Science students may apply. Program admission deadline May 15, 2017.

All Interested Persons Must Attend the Information Session Prior to Submission of an Application.
